The Prism Project of Greater NOLA: Roux-Roux Productions (TPP of GNO) is a performing arts program for children with and without special needs in the Greater New Orleans area, ages 6 – 14. The performers learn dance, music and theater every Saturday as they construct and rehearse for their original performance at the end of the season.

The Prism Project began in 2013 with a performance entitled, “We Are New Orleans, Too!” featuring songs from Louis Armstrong, Shakira, Stevie Nicks, and The Saints Anthem. All songs, scenes and dances were designed by the performers, with guidance from our one-to-one volunteer buddies, two behaviorist, three performance-specific directors, and the Program Coordinator. In 2014, The Prism Project of Greater NOLA performed “There’s No Place Like Home!” as a New Orleans twist on the classic Wizard of Oz.

TPP of GNO has a $30 application fee due when the application is submitted. The program lasts from about January to April. If your child is between the ages of 6 – 14 and has a disability, is a sibling of someone with special needs, or does not have special needs they are welcome to participate! We accept any child regardless of disability, and with our behaviorists on staff we are ready for whatever may occur. We meet every Saturday for 1.5 hours to rehearse and practice dance, music and theater. If you would like to receive an application and be aware of upcoming TPP of GNO information please go to www.fhfsela.org or fill out the bottom portion of this document and return it via mail or email to:
